SARAH BRADY with DARITH KLIBANOW FOR HANS AND SOPHIE SCHOLL WHITE ROSE BACKDROP

I am pleased to agree with Darith Klibanow for the creation of original artwork, to be used in a variety of capacities of my storytelling work (to include possible use in both virtual and in-person performances and workshops, as well as in publicity for such performances), as well as digital backdrop(s) for performances of a story(ies) about Hans and Sophie Scholl and the White Rose student resistance group and/or other stories of resistance. Darith Klibanow agrees that this artwork will be mine for all such uses, though she retains the right to to utilize said artwork in others ways, to be discussed as they arise.

Costs and Responsibilities

The charge for the creation of this artwork and virtual backdrop(s) is $25/hour, to include all planning, preparation, drafting, physical drawing, scanning, digital creation, editing, and other associated work, for a total of up to 20 hours of work. Please email the signed agreement to performanceandpen@gmail.com, then an invoice for all hours worked upon agreed-upon completion of the work. Once an invoice has been received, I will pay the entirety of the invoice by the preferred method (with options to include check, PayPal, Venmo, or other digital payment delivery system) within fifteen (15) days of receipt. If I fail to make payment within the fifteen day period of receipt of the invoice—barring illness, an act of God, or continuing discussion regarding completion of the work, an additional $15 per month late charge will be added to the invoiced amount.

If the above items are correct and agreeable, please sign below and return to performanceandpen@gmail.com. You may also mail the agreement to the below-mentioned address. If any information is incorrect, please contact me at the number listed below. We look forward to working with you.

Sincerely,

Sarah Brady
